When a young Prince is in search of a bride, his mother, The Queen, is on the lookout for a real Princess. One night, a young woman turns up on the steps of the palace, wet through from a huge storm. The Queen sets the young woman a test. In true fairy-tale style the young woman passes with flying colours and wins the heart of the Prince with her spirit and determination.

This gorgeous new production mixes Let's All Dance's signature crystal clear narrative, fantastic dancing, beautiful costumes and lovely music to enthrall children and families. A charming show and a great message to never judge a book by its cover! Suitable for all, especially 2-14 year olds, including those with special needs.
