What is working well:

Outside competitive activities and events, communication is better.

My son likes the school.

The religious work

"Head teacher responds quickly to emails.

More trips and experiences for children this year which is good.

I was very happy from my child's teachers. She developed big knowledge about geography, religion, maths. Also I'm greatfull that even though she is three lingual she is one of the top readers in the class. Absolutely amazing

School time table

Everything is working well.

The girls are happy at school and love there teachers , the teachers are really friendly and supportive expechilly with any concerns I have for Adas hip condition. The office are also so friendly and very helpful whenever I need their support in anything. I feel comfortable raising concerns with any of the teachers about the girls .

Friendly and approachable staff. Newsletter celebrating achievements! Fantastic trips organised.

My child progressed very quickly at this school

"The school staff is very helpful and supportive. The 'reading passport' idea was great and maybe 'maths passport' should be introduced?

It's good that children can attend mass and be taught about Christian values. "
